When HMRC comes knocking...

Case of mistaken identity, a husband & wife partnership selling and installing double glazing was investigated by HMRC. At a meeting, HMRC alleged the husband had been dishonest. By the end of a long and detailed enquiry, HMRC repaid £129 of tax to the partnership and apologised, confirming that the allegation of dishonesty was a case of mistaken identity. Accountancy fees were approximately £5,000 and were paid in full by Vantage Fee Protect.

The problem

- ✓ In the UK we live in an environment whereby the taxpayer is responsible for assessing their own tax liability by submitting a tax return
- ✓ HMRC opens enquiries to make sure taxpayers' have paid the right amount of tax
- ✓ If selected for enquiry HMRC will write to you or possibly visit your premises
- ✓ At the end of the enquiry HMRC may look to raise an assessment for additional tax due
- ✓ HMRC use their sophisticated Connect database to analyse data from 30 different sources and target enquiries
- ✓ HMRC are under pressure to open more enquiries than ever before to generate tax to fund the enormous spend through the Covid-19 pandemic

Anyone who pays tax can suffer an enquiry or compliance check by HMRC. If this happens to you:

- ✓ HMRC's detailed and intrusive questions will take time to answer
- ✓ A lot of work will have to be done to respond to the questions asked
- ✓ The enquiries can drag on for months and sometimes years
- ✓ Professional fees of hundreds or thousands of pounds may become due as a result

- ✓ You will receive the best possible defence
